

The Walker Budget: Pitting Public Schools Against Private Schools

Brief History of Governor Walker's Education Budgets

Massive cuts to public education and dramatic expansion of voucher program

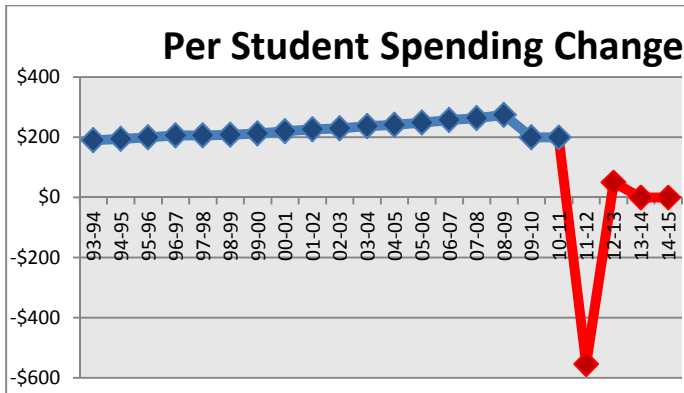

2011-2013 Budget

Cut $1.6 billion from public schools, expanded income eligibility for vouchers and spread the voucher program to the Racine School District

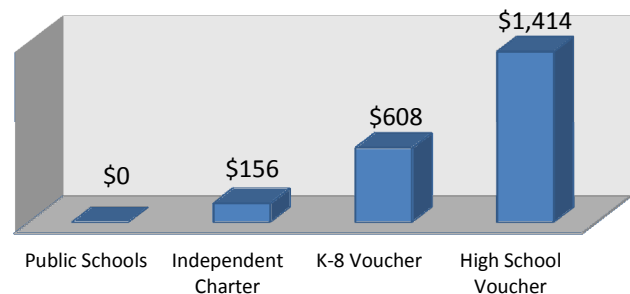

2013-2015 Budget

$0 per student increase for public schools, up to $1,414 per pupil increase for voucher students, expands voucher program to 9 more school districts with potential of even more and creates new voucher for special education students

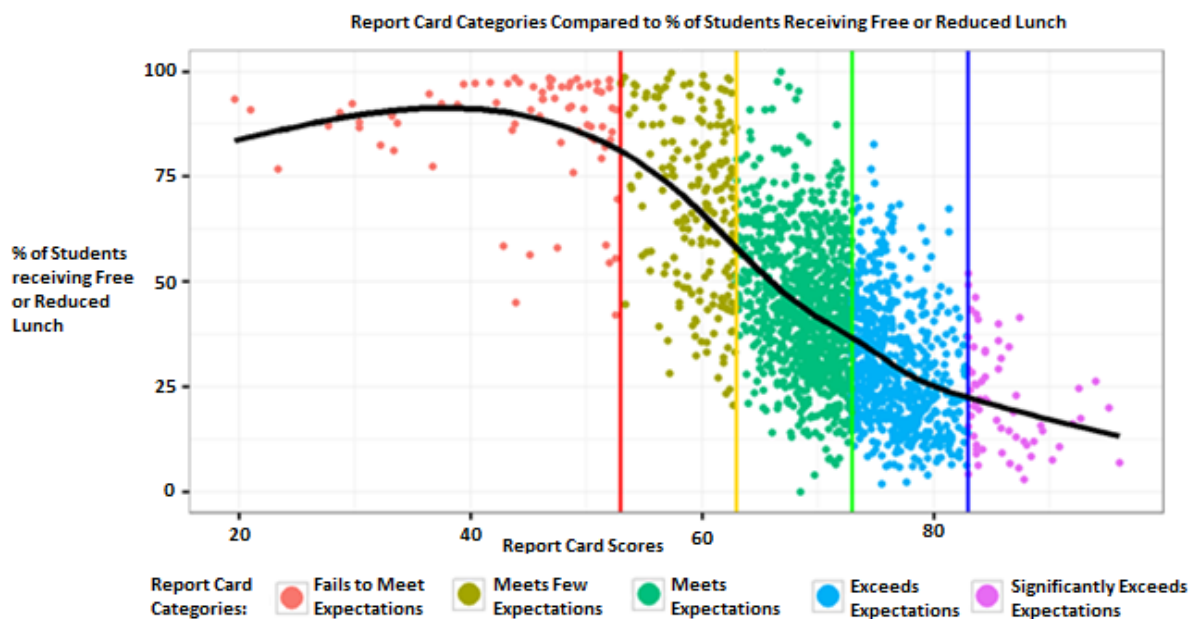

Spending Increases by School Type

Voucher Expansion Outlook

Eligible for Vouchers		On the Verge of Vouchers	Very Close to Vouchers
Beloit	Fond du Lac	Appleton	Chippewa Falls
Green Bay	Kenosha	Eau Claire	Watertown
Madison	Sheboygan	La Crosse	Wausau
Superior	Waukesha	Oshkosh
West Allis-West Milwaukee

How Walker's Performance Funding Furthers the Achievement Gap

Giving additional money to schools already performing well harms efforts to control poverty's effects on education